MEMBERS COMMENTS:

Mary Myers wanted the consensus of the Board in regard to waiving fines. The unanimous response from the Board was that fines should not be waived even in the face of irate patrons. The Board has empowered the staff to call 911 if you feel the least bit intimidated or harassed. They want waives to only happen in cases of mistakes on our part, or in situations such as Polaris being down. Mary Myers wanted Board members to realize that they may get phone calls from angry patrons and they all agreed that was OK.

Mandy Hines wanted to commend Laurel and her staff for good work at their library.
