

FLORIDA
State Parks
...the Real Florida

Celebrate!

Hispanic Heritage Month & Literacy Day with Florida State Parks

Read with a Ranger Bilingual Story Hour
Hosted By Highlands Hammock State Park

Date: September 10, 2016

Time: Saturday morning from 10:00 am – 11:00 am

Place: Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Museum

Highlands Hammock State Park
5931 Hammock Road, Sebring

Program: Join Sebring Lead Librarian Maria Chenique and Park Volunteer Melanie Brown as they read a selection of stories, poems, rhymes and folk songs in both English and Spanish that will surprise and delight young and old alike. Ranger Laura McMullen will lead a nature activity and conduct the Junior Ranger Program from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm following the Story Hour. Children must be accompanied by an adult. The Story Hour is free of charge.

Park entry fees of $6.00 per vehicle (up to eight people) apply. There will be FREE ADMISSION to Highlands Hammock on Saturday, September 10 OR Sunday, September 11, 2016 with a library card, library book or donation of a new or gently used, family appropriate book. Florida State Parks are celebrating Hispanic Heritage and International Literacy Months throughout September. For a complete list of free programs and special events being held in Florida State Parks during the month of September, visit www.FloridaStateParks.org.

