NEW BUSINESS:

Introduction of new Board Members: Chairman Donna Storter-Long introduced new Board members, Steve Spinks, Tara Poulton, and Highlands County Community Services Director, Chris Benson.

Treasurer vacancy: Donna Storter-Long asked Brad Goodbread if he would like to take this position and he accepted.

FY17 Audit report by Julie Fowler of CliftonLarsonAllen: Julie went over the audit and asked for any questions. She stated that this was a clean audit. Motion to approve Audit was made by Fran Syfrett, seconded by Brad Goodbread and unanimously passed.

Financial report by Cheryl Williams of Wicks, Brown, Williams & Co: Cheryl Williams went over the financial report. Motion to approve financial report was made by Tara Poulton, seconded by Albie Scoggins and unanimously passed.

Statistics: Coordinator Kresta King went over the statistical report for January 2018.

Polaris vs. Koha databases: Kresta reported to the Board about the price comparisons for Polaris vs. Koha. It was suggested by the Board, that a demonstration be set up, for the various libraries to try both systems before deciding on this issue at the May 2018 meeting. Kresta said she would work on this.

Computer support technician vacancies update: Coordinator Kresta King stated that she would like to have one part-time tech to cover Hardee and DeSoto Libraries, one part-time tech for Okeechobee and Glades Libraries, and Paul Ramponi will be responsible for Highlands Libraries, as well as the higher level IT duties. Chris Benson pointed out that if Paul Ramponi is not in a supervisory position over the part-time computer techs, he will no longer qualify to be exempt. Kresta indicated that as the techs would be through Manpower, she would be their supervisor, the same way that she supervises the couriers that are employed through Manpower. Kresta stated that she has no intention of making Paul Ramponi non-exempt, and Chris and Kresta will further discuss the situation before the next Board meeting.

Members Comments: Mary Booher stated that they had an Art in the Park event; there was a great crowd, over 4800 participants.
