OKEECHOBEE LIBRARY CELEBRATES

AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH

Celebrate African American History month by reading books written by and about African Americans. From historical to contemporary, fantasy to social justice, fiction to real life, these books tell the stories of African Americans in the past and the present.

For more suggestions,
visit our website, myhlc.org, and check out our curated book list at tinyurl.com/okelib-blackhistorymonth